From John and Bonnie, the owners of Serenity Now Books and Gifts:

“We faced two challenges: operating two businesses left us no time for properly cleaning our home, and when we used a cleaning service in the past we would have a chemical cleaning solution headache and other reactions for a day or two afterwards. To the rescue came Barbara with NATURAL SOLUTIONS. We have an ultra clean house, no more chemical headaches, and she pays attention to the aspects of cleaning that matter most to us! We heartily recommend Barbara and her cleaning/organizing services to anyone who values their home environment.

Natural Solutions gives you the opportunity to bring balance and harmony back to Planet Earth one home at a time. When Natural Solutions is finished in your home, the only thing left behind are healthier, happier families with more time to enjoy what YOU LOVE TO DO MOST!
